Earl Grey

A full-bodied black tea with bright cup married with the sweet fragrance and natural citrus flavour of the ripe bergamot orange.

Assam

Assam teas are grown in the Brahmaputra Valley in North Eastern India. Strong rich brew of dark amber colour with malt after-taste and hints of walnuts.

Darjeeling

Darjeeling teas are often referred to as the 'Champagne' of teas. Grown at altitudes up to 2,500m above sea level, Darjeeling has a pale amber brew with a harmonic combination of fruit and flower aromas with flashes of famed Muscatel grape.

Jasmine

Camomile

The infused flowers have a heady aroma of sweet hay and a floral, grassy flavour. The taste of sun-baked apples carries through to a gentle and mellow finish.
